

6516206839.txt

Satellite Radio is a breath of fresh air in a stagnant environment. Any attempt by over the air radio to stifle this format will be met with vehement opposition by me and other satellite radio listeners. Over the air radio has stifled innovation and access for too many years.
Do not succumb to their lobbying demands.

Gerry Weber